OTHER SECOND HAND BOOKS

We are not second-hand book dealers, but occasionally we do get asked to find homes for books. Often they are the books we have published, where the owner has died or is looking to reduce their collection. But we are offered other books as well and, when we have time, we like to help. Our emphasis is always on finding homes for the books – so we try to keep the prices on the low side.

Prices on these do not include postage, but we will do our best to keep it to a minimum.

*All these books are in reasonable condition for their age, those marked * have no dust jacket*
